

Privacy Policy

HSMV has a firm commitment to data privacy and security. HSMV DOES NOT sell, rent, lend, or exchange our mailing, email or contribution information. All information is private and protected by industry standard security measures.

HSMV uses generally accepted industry-standard security systems, software and encryption technologies for security purposes, and processes its online donations through a secure connection. The policies contained in this statement do not extend to any non-HSMV web sites linked to moabpets.org. Please check with these companies, organizations and sites for their policies regarding data privacy and security.

Contact moabhumane@gmail.com for any questions about this privacy and security statement.
